RQW
July 3, 1986

Session 16: Looking through the Veil

Summary: Dialogue about procedure for allowing channeling to take place. An important point is that in order for communication to take place the entity has to be asked a question in order to be given permission to communicate. Information is not volunteered freely without permission and intent given by the explorer. Guidance is always available but the explorer may choose to work through a problem alone.

Report by Daniel Erickson